

Phase: Year 5 & 6 Subject focus: Crime and Punishment/Victorians
Topic Name: Were the streets safer in Victorian times?

Display focus: William Morris and other Victorian Artists

The Hook

Children will have to be Sherlock Holmes style detectives and crack codes to find out what they will be learning this half term.

Parent Engagement

Homework project- Victorian Transport.
Sherlock Holmes style film project showcasing work with Adam Pepper.
Reading events linked to modern day authors
Digital Christmas Cards.

The Aim

To showcase our Sherlock Holmes movie to parents. Our children will be responsible for organising and promoting this event.

LOTC

Victorian Buildings in our local area and Nottingham City.
Spy activities.
Filming with Adam Pepper.

Pupil Voice

Children will be asked their views about what they want to learn at the start of the topic, as well as be given ownership in organising the film event. They will also choose which detective/spy they would like to look at during our themed week.

Enrichment

Adam Pepper Film Project.
Working with a local police officer/PCSO.
visiting local Victorian buildings.
Spy day and code breaking.

SMSC/British values Theme

Compare Modern Day Law to Victorian Law.
Health and Hygiene.

