

EYFS

Look at the picture, what can you see?

I can see...

If you were a pirate, what would you do?

If I were a pirate, I would...

A treasure chest of words:

gold treasure parrot chest monkey map ship island sea
dig sail hide plank

Year 1 and 2

Willy Wonka loves making chocolate and sweets.

If you invented your own chocolate or sweetie, what would it look like?

Challenge 1- Draw and colour your chocolate or sweetie.

Challenge 2- Write describing words about the chocolate or sweetie.

Challenge 3- Describe your chocolate or sweetie in sentences.

Sentence ideas:

On the outside, there are... When you take a bite, it will.... In the middle it.... The flavour is It is shaped like a....

Year 3 and 4

Did you know the Romans invented concrete?

Imagine you are the person who invented it. Your challenge is to persuade others why concrete is important.

Persuasive techniques to use:

Clearly... Obviously... I am certain that... Without a doubt, concrete is... Can you imagine... Wouldn't you want.... Surely.... The greatest thing.... Considering...

More information on Roman inventions can be found here:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/z6vb4wx>

Year 5 and 6

The Last Warrior

Pause for thought- What do you think 'the last warrior' means? Why is he putting a sword into the mountain? Describe the setting.

Challenge- To write a short story about 'The Last Warrior'. Use clear description and hook the reader in with a twist.

More ideas about the picture and a story starter can be found here:

<https://www.pobble365.com/the-last-warrior>

ENGLISH